

Business Sustainability Initiative (BSI)

Interdisciplinary Research Theme

Leads
Associate Professor Jacquelyn Humphrey
Dr Belinda Wade

Theme
The Business Sustainability Initiative leads the way in a rapidly changing business landscape, championing environmentally and socially conscious business practices & designing strategies for a sustainable future

Academics
Professor Peter Clarkson
Professor Sara Dolnicar
Dr Sally Driml
Dr Cle-Anne Gabriel
Dr Claudia Gonzalez
Associate Professor Kathy Herbohn
Professor Matthew Hornsey
Dr Stephen Jones
Dr Cristyn Meath
Dr Lance Newey
Dr Elizabeth Nichols
Dr Anna Phelan
Dr Kate Power
Dr Saphira Rekker
Dr Russell Richards
Professor Brent Ritchie
Dr Carl Smith
Dr Ya-Yen Sun
Dr Jie Wang
Professor Andrew Griffiths

Programs

- Master of Business - Organisational Sustainability Field of Study
- International Sustainability Program
- Executive Education programs – Climate Risk

International Academic Partners

- University of Exeter, Centre Circular Economy
- University of Manchester
- Imperial College, London
- Lund University, Sweden
- University of Otago, New Zealand
- National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan
- University of Texas
- University of North Carolina
- University International Business & Economics
- ESSCA School of Management, France

Key Industry Partners

Capability Areas

- Corporate sustainability – decarbonisation, climate change & natural resources
- Capital markets – social and environmental performance and measurement
- Social - social impact and entrepreneurship
- Tourism – climate impacts

Grants (Academics only)	Over $1.1M from the ARC, Government, university and other industry partners
Outcomes (Academics only)	+35K citations	+700 Journal publications	122 Book Chapters	32 Books	96 Completed PhD supervisions	42 Current PhD supervisions

Data correct as at 8 July 2019 based on 2018 eSpace data
Sources: UQ Researchers, UQ eSpace, UQ Authors