

Master of Global Management (UQ-commencing students)

2022 Double Degree Program Structure

It is important that you read and understand the following information.

To be eligible to enrol in the Master of Global Management you must satisfy the entry requirements as outlined in the program rules. It is your responsibility to ensure that you complete all the requirements of this program in order to graduate. The following information is designed to help you plan your enrolment to meet this goal. Further information can be found in the official program rules and course lists on the Courses and Programs website:

<https://my.uq.edu.au/programs-courses/requirements/program/5511/2022>

Please ensure you check your enrolments are correct for your double degree program at info@business.uq.edu.au.

Program Guidelines:

You must complete 32 units comprising:

- 6 units for all MGMan Core Courses; and
- 8 units from MGMan Fields of Study; and
- 18 units from MGMan Elective Options

Your study plan may differ depending on what institution you attend.

Partner Institutions

Of the 32 units required for the program, a student must obtain 16 units from completed study at a partner institution. Students will be awarded two master's degree upon completion, one from UQ and one from partner institution.

A commencing UQ student may not commence study at an approved partner institution until the student has—

- completed 16 units of UQ courses with a GPA of 5.25; and
- satisfied the entry requirements set by the partner institution, including a score in GMAT (if required) which meets the requirements set by that partner institution.

A commencing UQ student must nominate their preferred institution from the list of partner institutions by the date set by the Executive Dean. Students might not receive their first preference of partner institution. Please note, admission to partner institution may not be guaranteed.

A commencing UQ student who successfully completes the MGMan Core Courses and 10 units from MGMan Fields of Study, MGMan Program Elective Courses and/or MGMan Research Courses, but either does not meet the criteria to progress to an overseas partner institution or wishes to exit the program, may be awarded the Graduate Diploma in Business.

Opportunity to attend Chair or Track

The teaching and research chairs bring ESSEC into close collaboration with companies keen to develop innovative skills in their sector. Placed under the responsibility of members of the faculty body, each Chair has an objective to produce new knowledge, develop science and management practice confronted with the new challenges of the international environment, and to create a flow of data and market analyses. They are integrated into the Master program*. They last between one trimester and two years. The chairs curriculum integrates one or several seminars, strictly reserved to students admitted to the chair, as well as mandatory and/or optional courses. Through the privileged links between partner companies, professors and students, the Chairs gather leading intellectual and professional communities from a specific field of activity, thus participating in its development. A certificate from the Chairs is available if all the courses are passed. For more information, please see here.

Possible chair or track opportunities include:

- Food Business Challenges Chair
- Management and Society Track
- Entrepreneurship Track
- Leading a Beauty Brand Chair
- Accenture Strategic Business Analytics Chair
- Leadership and Diversity Chair
- LVMH Chair: Future of Luxury
- Innovation and Health Chair
- Digital Disruption Chair
- Finance Track

Professional Experience requirements at ESSEC Business School:

Students are required to complete a minimum 12 months of work experience. It is possible to validate previous work experiences if agreed by the ESSEC Career Service department. ESSEC Career Services offer 16,000 internship and job offers (some in English) which are available for ESSEC students every year. For more information, please see ESSEC Career Services.
